

I believe New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law should stay in effect, unaltered. This law has enabled our family to once again enjoy our evening meal together without interruption by unsolicited telemarketers. It's a good law, please do not yield to the special interests of the telemarketers. Thanks.